GENERAL INFORMATION:

For more than 45 years, Women Make Movies, a non-profit organization, has transformed the filmmaking landscape for diverse women directors and producers, helping to bring issues facing women around the world to light. Our Production Assistance Program assists women directors with their productions from concept through completion with fiscal sponsorship, consultations, workshops and webinars, and other technical assistance. Films and filmmakers we have supported have been nominated for or won Academy Awards in 13 of the past 14 years. As the world's leading distributor of independent films by and about women, we amplify the voice of people historically ignored by the mainstream media. Our acclaimed collection, which features Academy, Emmy, Peabody, and Sundance nominees and award winners, is used by thousands of cultural, educational, and community organizations across North America.

SHORT DESCRIPTION OF WOMEN MAKE MOVIES:

Established in 1972 to address the under-representation and misrepresentation of women in the media industry, Women Make Movies is a multicultural, multiracial, non-profit media arts organization which facilitates the production, promotion, distribution, and exhibition of independent films and media by and about women. The organization provides services to both users and makers of film and video programs, with a special emphasis on supporting work by women of color. Women Make Movies facilitates the development of feminist media through an internationally recognized Distribution Service and a Production Assistance Program.
